

MANU AO
Academy

Seminar Series

3 August 2011

Jacinta Ruru

Exploring Māori legal rights to fresh water

Jacinta Ruru of Ngāti Raukawa ki Waikato, Ngai Ranginui ki Tauranga me Ngāti Maniapoto is a senior lecturer, having joined the Faculty back in 1999. She teaches Laws 455 Maori Land Law, Laws 461 Law and Indigenous Peoples, and parts of Laws 203 Property Law. Her research interests include Indigenous peoples' rights to own, manage and govern land and water. Jacinta is coordinator the University of Otago Research Cluster for Natural Resources Law, co-leader of the Centre for Research on National Identity 'Landscape' project and co-leader of a four-year water governance research project based at Landcare Research, funded by the Foundation for Research Science and Technology (FRST).

She is currently an executive member of Te Hunga Roia Māori o Aotearoa/the Māori Law Society, the University of Otago Research Committee, and the University of Otago Māori Academic Staff Caucus. Jacinta has been the recipient of several awards including the University of Otago Early Career Award for Distinction in Research (2006) and a New Zealand Fulbright Travel Award (2002). She was contributing author to the book that won the New Zealand Legal Research Foundation JF Northey Memorial Book Award (2004).