

MANU AO
Academy

Seminar Series 13 July 2011

Naida Glavish

The role of Māori women and leadership

Naida of Ngāti Whatua is a proficient translator with extensive knowledge of Tikanga Māori. She is experienced in advocating for Māori and champions the protection of tikanga within mainstream settings.

Naida is currently the Chief Advisor Tikanga / General Manager of He Kamaka Oranga, Māori Health for the Auckland District Health Board. As an Iwi representative, she is the chairperson - Te Runanga o Ngāti Whatua and Ngāti Whatua Ngā Rima o Kaipara and a dedicated advocate for the Tikanga of Ngāti Whatua.