

MANU AO
Academy

Seminar Series 8 September 2010

Professor Tamati Reedy

Ko te reo te mauri o te mana Māori

Professor Tamati Reedy of Ngāti Porou is a professional educationalist, academic, and former top public servant with a MA in English and a MA and PhD in Linguistics. Professor Reedy was a Fulbright Scholar serving as Associate Professor at the University of Alabama, USA, 1982 - 83. He was the Chief Executive and Secretary of the Department of Māori Affairs from 1983 to 1989 and was awarded the 1990 New Zealand Medal for public service.

Professor Reedy was appointed to the University of Waikato in 1996 as Foundation Dean and Professor to establish the new School of Māori and Pacific Development. He was awarded the title Emeritus Professor by the University of Waikato in December 2009. Professor Reedy was appointed to the Waitangi Tribunal in 2010.